

SNS Awarded IIM-JRD Tata Award for Contribution to Metallurgical Industries

L&T CEO & MD Mr. S.N. Subrahmanyan has been awarded the prestigious IIM-JRD Tata Award for 'Excellence in Corporate Leadership in Metallurgical Industries' for 2019.

A fitting recognition of his outstanding contribution towards the growth and development of India's metal and metallurgy industry, SNS was presented the coveted award at the 57th National Metallurgist's Day Awards Function held on November 14, 2019, in Kovalam, Kerala. Shri Dharmendra Pradhan, Hon'ble Minister of Petroleum & Natural Gas and Minister of Steel, Govt. of India, felicitated SNS in front of an august gathering of senior government officials, industry leaders and members of the academia.

Previous recipients of the award include industry stalwarts such as Mr. Ratan Tata, Chairman, Tata Sons, Mr. E Sreedharan, Managing Director, Delhi Metro Rail Corporation, Mr. Debnarayan Bhattacharya, Managing Director, Hindalco Industries, and Dr. Baba Kalyani, Chairman & Managing Director, Bharat Forge and Mr. Sajjan Jindal, CMD, JSW Group.

The IIM-JRD Tata Award for 'Excellence in Corporate Leadership in Metallurgical Industries,' is conferred annually to an outstanding Corporate Executive in metallurgical industry. This is to recognise significant contributions in the fields of leadership and development, having an impact on national and international scenario. The award was instituted in 2007.