L&T Construction Wins (Significant*) Contracts for Metallurgical & Material Handling Business

Mumbai, January 1, 2021: The Metallurgical & Material Handling (MMH) business of L&T Construction has secured EPC orders of Coal Processing Plants in the domestic market and a prestigious Engineering & Procurement Project for a Metallurgical Plant overseas.

These orders reflect MMH prowess in executing complex metallurgical plants and a recognition of their capability in overseas geographies.

The business has also secured new orders from its various customers for products and an add on order from its existing customer.

Background:
